

ECR Newsletter Guidelines

Each month we send our Early Career Researchers a newsletter which contains the most up-to-date news, training and development opportunities, events as well as reminders of the support available to ECRs. You can view previous newsletters here.

Copy for Deadlines: See Website

We cannot guarantee that submissions will be included in the newsletter, if submitted after this deadline.

Please send your submissions to ResearcherDevelopment@exeter.ac.uk for the attention of Juliet White.

Please limit the word count for your submission to 150 words.

Note that the team reserves the right to exercise editorial control over all submissions, to keep them consistent with our house style, tone, length, and so on.

Only one image is permitted alongside your text submissions.

Please ensure images are of an acceptable quality. If they are of too low a resolution, we may be unable to include them. Images must be GDPR compliant.

Submission Top-Tips

- Make sure to spell out any acronyms in full.
- Avoid using jargon.
- Include colleague job titles where possible and relevant.
- Keep article headings short.
- Please link out to online content where possible.
- If using an image, it needs to be high quality, GDPR compliant and credited if copyrighted.
- Make sure to include key information such as dates, deadlines and contact points in your piece.
